MEDIA ADVISORY PROJECT ZERO
MILWAUKEE FIRE DEPARTMENT TO RECEIVE $10,000 FOR FIRE SAFETY

On Monday, May 1, 2006, at 3 pm, Wisconsin 's Attorney General, Peg A. Lautenschlager, will present the Milwaukee Fire Department a check for $10,000 from the State of Wisconsin for fire education in the City of Milwaukee.

The presentation will be at the Milwaukee Fire Department 's administrative offices at 711 West Wells Street. There will be a display of the educational material that will be obtained with these monies. The presentation is open to all members of the press, elected officials, and citizens of Milwaukee.

The Milwaukee Fire Department is dedicated to the goals of reducing fire fatalities and the costs related to fires in the city. With programs like Project Zero, FOCUS (Firefighters Out Creating Urban Safety), the Survive Alive House, and others, the department remains dedicated to reduce the fire rate in the City of Milwaukee.

If any media outlet would like to have an interview with a department member relating to these issues, or any other fire safety issues, please feel free to call Lieutenant Brian O ' Connor at (414) 286-8968.
